LOT 119 - Armstrong Glass Insulator Set

Description

Electrify your collection with these vintage Armstrong glass insulators, designed to withstand the test of time—both literally and figuratively! This set of three clear glass insulators boasts a classic design with a sturdy, industrial charm. Perfect for collectors, decorators, or those looking to upcycle them into unique lighting fixtures or rustic decor. These insulators have some expected wear but maintain their iconic durability and shine.

Dimensions: Approximately 4" tall each.

Condition: Vintage, with minor imperfections from age. One insulator has chipping on bottom (shown in photos).

Ready to insulate your style with a touch of history? Don't let these slip by!
