

Sale Name: Auction by the Dam - Winter Prelude

LOT 47 - Antique Early 1900's John L. Stoddard's Lectures

Description

Embark on a literary world tour with this stunning collection of John L. Stoddard's Lectures. Featuring 10 richly detailed volumes and 2 bonus volumes, these leather-bound books transport you to faraway lands and historical moments with Stoddard's vivid storytelling. While the covers show the expected wear of a well-traveled library, the stories within remain timeless. The titles include lectures on destinations such as Paris, Rome, Egypt, and India, offering a treasure trove of cultural insights.

Perfect for history buffs, vintage book collectors, or anyone looking to impress house guests by casually having "Berlin and St. Petersburg" on your coffee table. (Bonus points if you actually read them.) Add a touch of classic sophistication—and a faint smell of antique leather—to your home!
